

Diagram of a beam of length 6m, divided into three equal segments of 2m each. The load is represented by a series of black and white rectangles along the beam.